

The Towns Around.

EAST CONCORD.

Mrs. Addie Sanborn of Whitefield and her son Earl of Lowell, Mass., were guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Webb last week.

Alice Smith went last Monday to South Lancaster, Mass., where she will attend summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Temple of Boston, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Lynch of St. Johnsbury were guests at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Massey last week.

Will Adair found his fine family horse dead in his pasture one day last week. The horse was valued at $150 and was apparently in perfect health when last seen.

S. H. Kellogg and Eugene Moulton were in Burlington last week.

Mrs. Myra Adair and daughter Kathleen and Mrs. Willis Adair spent last week with friends in Bradford.

Wednesday Mrs. W. R. Smith, Mrs. J. C. McDonald and Alice Smith picked 50 quarts of field strawberries in five hours who can beat this?

The ladies of the Methodist church will give an ice cream social next Friday evening at the church dining rooms. All are invited.

Miss Mabel Wood went last Monday to Concord to work for Walter Douglas.

Miss Mamie Wood has returned to Newbury after spending a short vacation at her home in this place.

Mrs. Calvin Breakwood who is ill at Littleton hospital is failing.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith and son of North Woodstock were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stockwell last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jackson spent Sunday with friends at Scotts, N. H.

Mrs. Curt Goodall is slowly convalescing.

Mrs. John McLary and her children have returned to their home at Thetford Center, after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Wood.

The Lady Macbeths will give a chicken pie supper and dancing party at Folson's hall next Saturday evening. Supper will be served from six to eight.

Rev. A. C. Gilbert of Passumpsic will speak at the Methodist church next Sunday at 2 p. m. in behalf of the temperance cause.

Willie Fisher arrived home Sunday evening from North Carolina where he has spent the last few months. He was somewhat surprised on arriving at the home of his sister, Mrs. George King, to find 20 of his young friends awaiting his return with a bountiful supply of cake and ice cream.

Miss Edith Weir of Boston is a guest at the home of her uncle, Archie Weir, for a few weeks.

Nathan Bean, who has spent the past few months at Groveton, N. H., has returned home.

George Higgins of St. Johnsbury was a guest of Abner Fisher Saturday and Sunday.

Marion Higgins of St. Johnsbury is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Carl Tinker of St. Johnsbury is a guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Grant, for a few days.

Mrs. Jennie Whitcher of Twin Mountain, N. H., was a recent guest of her mother, Mrs. Susan Morrill.

Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. Cured.
Bright's disease of the kidneys can be cured in its early stages by the use of Kydall's Kidney Remedy. This remedy is made from a prescription of the greatest Kidney Specialist in Europe. Sufferers from back-ache, weak kidneys, inflammation of the bladder and rheumatism, will find this remedy will quickly relieve and soon permanently cure these complaints. We sell Kydall's Kidney Remedy under a positive guarantee. Charles A. Seales & Co.

WEST BURKE.

The Eastern Star will give a lawn party the 21st of July on the drug store lawn. Everybody come.

Elmer Packard of Albany, N. Y., is in town for the summer.

Adell and Leah Wyzanski of Brookline, Mass., are stopping with their uncle Jake Solomon this summer.

Mrs. John Smith of Barton and Mrs. Charles Nutt of St. Johnsbury visited at Dr. Suiter's over Sunday.

Mrs. Ward of Watertown, P. Q., who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. Suiter returned home Monday.

Mabel Porter is quite sick with asthma.

Carl Gillfillan and George Duma have had the Citizens telephone put in their houses.

Marion Walter and Myrtle Alexander went to Lyndon Center Wednesday.

Mrs. John Watchie, who has been quite sick with typhoid fever is gaining.

Van Bruce and family of Lowell, Mass., are visiting at Henry Bruce's and Deming Fairbanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Porter have returned from a trip to Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gillfillan were in St. Johnsbury, Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. G. H. Wright were in Barton Landing Monday.

Frank Burns, Mrs. Angie Burns and Miss Blanche Burns and Adell and Leah Wyzanski spent Sunday at Willoughby Lake.

Charles Winter is in the village doing some lettering on the Way monument in the cemetery.

Rev. and Mrs. George Wright are in Plainfield visiting their son and daughter.

Mrs. Frank Monroe and son Howard from Boston are here for a while.

GREENSBORO.

Mrs. Grace Ney, formerly Miss Grace Chandler of this town, and her sisters, Florence and Celia, are visiting friends about their old Greensboro home. They have lived at Battle Creek, Michigan, for several years.

An illustrated talk on Turkey will be given at the Congregational church by the pastor on Monday evening, July 19, at 8 o'clock. The slides to be used are furnished by the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions and are of the highest grade. Everyone is invited. Admission free.

Frank Noyes and family from Arkansas are visiting at the old home.

John Baker and family of New York and E. A. Baker and family of Boston are at the Baker farm.

WEST DANVILLE.

J. H. Bassett, who has been in Providence for three months, returned home Saturday.

A. J. Goss and J. E. Conly took in the excursion to Burlington last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wakefield and three children and Mr. and Mrs. E. Bailey of Littleton visited at F. D. Perkins one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gile from Walden were at his brother's, George W. Gile, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Merrill are visiting at A. W. Merrill's.

Mrs. J. E. Conly was at St. Johnsbury Center two days last week to visit her uncle, Mr. Pierce.

N. E. O. P. Lodge No. 286 of this place purchased about one year ago the old schoolhouse. The price to be paid was $275, they did repairing to the amount of $100, and now have it all paid and they own the building and have money in the treasury. They now plan to make some improvements by laying a hard wood floor in the main hall and making some other inside repairs. This gives the lodge a comfortable home.

Some thieves are abroad robbing hen roosts. Mrs. Mary Clifford had a turkey gobbler, weighing about 35 pounds, taken one night last week and others have lost poultry. It is the meanest kind of stealing.

Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops chronic coughs that weaken the constitution and develop into consumption, but heals and strengthens the lungs. It affords comfort and relief in the worst cases of chronic bronchitis, asthma, hay fever and lung trouble. C. C. Bingham.

WELLS RIVER.

Business at Hale's Tavern.

Since Jerome F. Hale took charge of the hostelry that bears his name 14 years ago he has entertained 120,512 guests. In June of this year 704 registered at this popular resort and so far in July he has had 958 guests, making 1662 in less than two months. The past five days he has entertained 168. Mr. Hale has recently prepared a most attractive booklet, showing the plans of each floor, and containing much useful information for prospective guests.

The funeral of Mrs. Samuel A. Moore, who died at St. Paul, Minn., last April, was held here Monday afternoon. Among those present at the service were her two daughters, Mrs. John A. Moore of St. Johnsbury and Mrs. J. R. Nelson of Kingston, N. Y., Charles Joy of St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Moore of St. Johnsbury.

SHEFFIELD.

Elsie Gorman, who has been visiting relatives in town for a few days, returned to St. Johnsbury, Tuesday.

Dale Atwood of St. Johnsbury was in town recently.

Will Farr and family of Saratoga, N. Y., have been visiting at Frank Pearl's the past week.

G. F. Leavitt of Worcester, Mass., spent a few days at H. P. Simpson's recently.

Samuel Mitchell, who has employment in the Lyndon Savings Bank, is spending his vacation in Sheffield this year.

Announcements have been recently received of the marriage of Miss Edna Sisco, formerly of Sheffield, and Wesley Converse Atkins of Cabot, at Glover last week. The bride was a graduate of Northfield Seminary in the class of 1909. They are spending their honeymoon at Willoughby Lake.

H. W. Dexter of Lowell, Mass., was a recent visitor in town.

A very good crowd was in attendance at the Methodist social held at the residence of E. H. Hill, last Friday afternoon and evening. The supper, as usual, was noted for its staying qualities.

Miss Ethel Colby of Plainfield has been visiting at Irma Brown's for the past week. Miss Colby and Miss Brown graduated from Montpelier Seminary together in the class in 1906.

Curtis, Cecil and Ernestine Brown of St. Johnsbury have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brown.

George L. Giffin and family of Waterbury, Conn., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Giffin, for a few days this week.

Charles Chesley, who has been attending the Tercentenary celebration at Burlington during the last week, returned home Saturday night.

Everyone would be benefited by taking Foley's Orino Laxative for stomach and liver trouble and habitual constipation. It sweetens the stomach and breath, gently stimulates the liver and regulates the bowels and is much superior to pills and ordinary laxatives. Why not try Foley's Orino Laxative today? C. C. Bingham.

NEWBURY.

Mrs. Mary Cobb is spending a few days with friends in Hartford, Conn.

Miss Grace Wallace spent a few days last week with friends in Montpelier.

Professor and Mrs. John S. Gilman are spending the week at Willoughby Lake.

George L. Andrews and son Paul were in Northfield a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Kimball of Barton are spending a few days at the Sawyer house.

Miss Cobb of Providence, R. I., is in town and will spend the summer with Mrs. Helen Worthen.

Edwin Gorham of Boston was in town a few days last week the guest of Miss H. E. Keyes.

Miss Anna Atkinson who has been in New York city the past year is home for the summer vacation.

Mrs. Chalmers and her sister Miss Ross went to Boston Monday to spend a few weeks with friends.

Mrs. C. H. Shank and son Howard returned Thursday from nearly three months visit with friends in Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker and Dr. and Mrs. Johnson of Franconia, N. H. were in town a few days last week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Haines Johnson.

James Wallace a veteran of the civil war passed away Saturday. He had a stroke of paralysis earlier in the week and died from that cause. The funeral was held on Tuesday forenoon at the house of his sister Mrs. Sawyer, where he had made his home for many years.

NORTH MONROE.

Mrs. Amos Bourlisse of East Burke has been in town the guest of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. George Drew.

Mrs. Florence Jellison and Miss Mary Fisher took a carriage trip to St. Johnsbury, Thursday.

Sherburn Lang and daughter, also John Lang of East Burke were in town last week calling on their many relatives here.

Charles Emery Jr. was in Orange, Mass., Friday on business. His little son Earl returned with him and is at his grandparents'.

R. A. Kendall of McIntire is building a new barn for Sam Burney.

Mrs. Luella Turner is visiting at N. E. Nelson's.

Austin Fisher is visiting his daughter at Mrs. Stanley's.

Miss Ruth Nelson is home from her school in Tilton Seminary for her summer vacation.

A goodly number of North Monroe people were at Barnet Friday evening to attend the dance in Martin Turner's new barn.

Julia and Mary Fisher visited Francis Astle in South Littleton one day last week.

Lester Lang is improving in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Blair were in St. Johnsbury Friday and Mr. Blair brought a fine pair of work horses back with him.

Mrs. Henry Byron is staying at John Hall's while their daughter Mrs. Merrifield is in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Aumer of Springfield, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Aumer's mother, Mrs. Frances Emery.

Haying is going on quite rapidly now.

Frank Sylvester has moved into one of Hugh Nelson's houses on the back road, and Mr. Jordan into his house on the corner.

Delay in taking Foley's Kidney Remedy if you have backache, kidney or bladder trouble, fastens the disease upon you and makes a cure more difficult. Commence taking Foley's Kidney Remedy today and you will soon be well. Why risk a serious malady? C. C. Bingham.

Missionary to be Commissioned.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M. Kyle, a secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions, Boston, will give an address. Rev. Stephen G. Barnes, D. D., of St. Johnsbury, preaches the sermon, and also, in the name of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, presents the commission. After the prayer of consecration, Rev. William A. Bacon, pastor Congregational church of Littleton, N. H., will give an address on The message of the churches. It is only an afternoon meeting. The train service both ways is good. The railroad station at Lunenburg is 14 miles from the meeting house. Train leaves St. Johnsbury at 10 a. m. Miss Richmond expects to sail from Boston August 4 and to be a kindergarten teacher having been in special training for that work.

People from towns around are invited to the commissioning service at the Congregational church, Dalton, N. H., at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, July 15, commissioning Miss Clara Childs Richmond, a member of the Dalton church for foreign missionary service in Asia Minor, in Cesarea, Western Turkey. Miss Alice M.